

Let's Practice!

Howard expresses his thoughts.

Instructions: Match the beginning of the sentences in Column A to the end of the sentences in Column B. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

COLUMN A

1. I understand why
2. I wonder
3. I know you are all wondering where
4. I wondered how
5. I wonder what

COLUMN B

- a. the idea of practicing my public speaking techniques could help draw me out of my shyness.
- b. where she is.
- c. happened to her.
- d. this seems hard to believe.
- e. this story is going.

Let's Practice!

Howard talks about past habits that annoyed him.

Instructions: Choose the option that best completes the sentence.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1) At social events, I was always _____ in the corner, hoping no one would come my way.
a) waited
b) waiting
c) wasting | 4) I was continuously _____ myself about why all the people I gathered with were so shallow.
a) to question
b) questioning
c) questioned |
| 2) My wife _____ to go out, but I only wanted to stay at home.
a) was asking always
b) was always asked
c) was always asking | 5) People's behaviors were constantly _____.
a) to annoy
b) annoyed
c) annoying |
| 3) I _____ to avoid jobs that required dealing with the public.
a) did always trying
b) was always tried
c) was always trying | |